Argentina from Spain as a soldier to fight against the English pirates who attacked Spanish ships. Later he settled in South America as a farmer. The objective at that time was to provide wine for the priests of the church and much later for the settlers, who came to the 'New World' to take advantage of new opportunities. The Don Manuel Villafañe winery focuses on hand harvested, small batch wines, upholding the integrity of the land and history of viticulture in Mendoza, Argentina.

Origin : Mendoza, Argentina Varietal/s : Cabernet Sauvignon

Production Region : The snow of the Andes mountains irrigates the land in the Mendoza region for the city and the vineyards. The soil at Don Manuel winery is combination of rainbow colored stones from the size of your fist to small pebbles. The soil beneath is a combination of mostly sand and small amounts of clay. The drainage is perfect for grape vines and the stones keep the vines warm at night as temperatures drop after the sun sets.

Vinification : After hand harvesting and sorting the grapes,

This wine is aged 12-14 months in both French and American oak barrels.

Aging Potential : 6-10 years

ABV : 13.5%
